The following PIECE was designed for our laſt, but unavoidably left out, in order to make Room for the Proceedings of the Honourable Commons Houſe of Aſſembly, &c. ſince which, we find, it has made its Appearance in another Paper; however, we flatter ourſelves that our Readers will be well pleaſed in having it publiſhed in this Gazette, and indeed we ſhould look upon ourſelves inexcuſable did we not do ſo, as upon a Neglect of it, we ſhould not render the deſerved Applauſe which the Author of it is entitled to, from every true and loyal AMERICAN, eſpecially when we conſider with what Strength of Argument, and Impartiality, he has eſpouſed the real and general Cauſe of Complaint of our diſtreſſed COLONIES, in Regard to the late Meaſures taken to enſlave them.

From the PUBLIC LEDGER, SEPTEMBER 6, 1768.

I AM not a little aſtoniſhed to find, that the people of England in the very moment that they reſiſt every meaſure of Adminiſtration, when confined to this ſide of the Atlantic, ſhould be ſuch ſtrenuous advocates for all the proceedings of Government when carried to the other; one would naturally imagine that if our Patriots were not conſiſtent from Juſtice, they might at leaſt be conſiſtent from Shame, and at any rate learn to aſſume the appearance of Equity however they deſpiſed the reality. But the more we ſee of the world, the more we ſhall find ſelf to be the grand principle of action with mankind; we can by no means ſuffer the rod of Deſpotiſm to be ſtretched over ourſelves, but we can ſtretch it without any reluctance over other people, and the ſame Tax which we would execrate univerſally as an infamous exertion, when levied upon our own property, becomes a very neceſſary act of Government, when laid upon the property of the unfortunate Americans. In ſhort, every Duty which is impoſed upon England is extremely arbitrary, but nothing can be arbitrary which impoſes a Duty upon America; the very execution of the laws is an intolerable grievance to an inhabitant of the Mother Country, but it is perfectly right to execute what is contrary to the Laws on the inhabitants of the ill-fated Colonies.

It has always been a principle in the laws of Great-Britain, that the property of the ſubject was never to be taxed without his own conſent; and it has always been conſidered, that the people of the Colonies were as much Subjects to the Crown of Great-Britain as the immediate Reſidents in England—At any rate, our Colonies muſt be Freemen, or they muſt be Slaves; that is, they muſt have the ſame equitable title to protection with ourſelves, or they muſt not.—If we allow them the ſame right to Protection, why do we attempt to load them with Taxes diametrically oppoſite to their inclinations; and if we will not allow them a claim which Nature and Reaſon ſo evidently demand, are they to be condemned for eſpouſing the general cauſe of humanity, and reſiſting a Deſpotiſm which we ourſelves ſhould reſiſt, were we unhappily plunged in the ſame miſerable ſituation.

The infallible Criterion of Rectitude is to act by others as we wiſh others to act by us; Reaſon and Religion ſupport this ſentiment as the great Axis upon which the wheel of all equity muſt neceſſarily turn.—To judge therefore, by this Criterion for a moment, let us ſuppoſe that, by ſome unexpected Revolution, the people of America were to become more powerful than ourſelves, and that in conſequence of this ſuperiority, they ſhould attempt to load us with Taxations as they thought proper; and by ſeizing our property with laws wholly enacted at Boſton, or New-York, ſhould refuſe us the ſatisfaction of contributing voluntarily to the ſervice of our King and Country, would not we think the proceeding hard? Would not we think it contrary to the fundamental principles of the Britiſh Conſtitution? If we would, Why ſhould we condemn the Americans for exclaiming againſt a Tax which is laid on them without their own conſent, the exerciſe of force in oppoſition to the dictates of equity, is as criminal in us as it could poſſibly be in them; and the argument of power is a poor argument indeed, when it comes to be placed in a contradictory ſcale to Juſtice and Humanity. —— If the doctrine of right is once ſacrificed to the plea of force, and if people ſay they can lawfully do a thing, becauſe they have the ability to do it, the ſacred bonds of ſociety muſt be inſtantly broken, all mutual Faith, between man and man, muſt inſtantly ceaſe, we muſt look for nothing but inevitable deſtruction.

The inconſiderate Inhabitants of England, who expreſs ſo much indignation againſt the poor Americans, indeed tell us that the Mother Country is under the diſagreeable neceſſity of levying Taxes upon the Colonies by her own authority, becauſe they refuſe to levy ſuch Taxes upon themſelves, as are abſolutely neceſſary for the ſupport of Government. It has for ſome time been very faſhionable to condemn the unfortunate Colonies, and a man is even ſuſpected to be half an enemy to Great-Britain, who preſumes to ſay a ſingle word in their defence; notwithſtanding the prejudices conceived againſt them, however, I muſt beg leave to aſk, how long the Colonies have manifeſted a diſinclination to furniſh their neceſſary quota to the general ſervice of the Britiſh Empire. —— Did they ſhew this Diſinclination before or after the bleſſed adminiſtration of Mr. GEORGE GRENVILLE, I am pretty confident they did not before that period refuſe to raiſe Taxes among themſelves, for the benefit of their Country; and my confidence in this reſpect, is founded upon a reſolution of the BRITISH HOUSE OF COMMONS, during the progreſs of the laſt war, who voted a ſum of TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND POUNDS to the Province of MASSACHUSETTS-BAY, in order to reimburſe that VERY LOYAL Colony for the extraordinary expences, which it went to in ſupport of the common cauſe, expences which were not only greatly more than what we require from it, but what we likewiſe acknowledge to be greatly beyond its abilities. Yet, though there was ſo recent and ſo honourably a teſtimony of American fidelity on record, we muſt doubt that very fidelity, and we muſt ſuſpect the attachment of our fellow Subjects beyond the Atlantic, at the very moment they were giving us ſuch exalted marks of their affection. What is the conſequence? They refuſe to be ſlaves, and we claim an arbitrary power over them; for fear of loſing our authority, we drive them into deſperation, and then are angry that they murmer; we inſiſt upon ſeizing their property at pleaſure, and we are highly offended becauſe they wiſh to have the diſpoſal of this property themſelves.—We have ſaved them from the yoke of France, and therefore we muſt load them with ſhackles——their opulence has been owing to our protection, and therefore we will plunge them into abſolute deſtruction. To deny our deſpotiſm is to deny our power; to deny our right is rebellion againſt the laws of poor Old England.

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

BERLIN, SEPTEMBER 10.

SIR Andrew Mitchell, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary, has been at Potſdam ſome days, waiting the King of Pruſſia's return from Sileſia. This and other circumſtances occaſion many perſons here to believe, that there are ſome very important affairs on the tapis between the two Courts.

WARSAW, September 14. We have received advice, that one of the diviſions of the Ruſſian troops attacked and diſperſed, between Kauen and Vilkomiers, a large body of the Confederates of Lithuania, about 200 of whom were killed, and as many taken priſoners. One of the regiments of the ſaid troops is upon the march towards Pruſſia Royal, where, it is apprehended, there are ſome reſtleſs and turbulent people endeavouring to form confederacies.

LONDON,

SEPTEMBER 26. Some late Dutch Mails have brought news, that ten per cent. duty is laid on all Engliſh manufactures imported into ſome Electoral dominions; and theſe letters add, that ſome other German Powers will come to a determination of prohibiting all the Engliſh manufactures till ſome demands are diſcharged.

Extract of a letter from Ploczko, in Poland, dated Aug. 24.

"On the eve of the taking of Cracow the Marſhal of the Confederacy demanded of the Jews who inhabited the ſuburbs, to furniſh him with 600 men; but upon their repreſenting to him the impoſſibility of complying with his demand, he ordered them to pay 80,000 florins. To this they made anſwer, That they had no money, owing to the interruption of their trade, and deſired he would have a little patience; upon which he ſent ſoldiers among them, who cut off the beards and hair of ſome of the oldeſt of them, threatning, unleſs they complied with the ſum demanded within two days, to ſerve them in the ſame manner; but the following night they were releaſed by the Ruſſians. The Confederates had got a great number of horned cattle in the neighbourhood which the Ruſſian troops ſeized, and the quantity was ſo conſiderable, that an ox was ſold for a ducat, and a cow for a crown."

By a Gentleman juſt arrived from Cadiz we are informed, that the Spaniards are greatly augmenting their marine, both in Europe and America.

By the laſt letters from Hamburgh we are informed, that there are ſome Engliſh Officers, at that place, enliſting troops. They have orders to form three regiments, to be ſent directly from thence to America.

The Royal Academy of Sciences at Stockholm, have appointed the aſtronomical Obſervator Frederick Mallet to obſerve, in Lapland, the tranſit of Venus next year, the 3d of June; who accordingly is gone from Stockholm, provided with the moſt accurate inſtruments. He is alſo, on account of the Board of Admiralty, deſired to make obſervations in Sinus Tinnico, on purpoſe for an accurate ſea map. Mr. Hallenerents is to be his companion.

Letters by the Saturday's mail inform us, that it is not probable the Porte will proceed to extremities againſt Ruſſia; and that they only mean to demand ſatisfaction of the Ruſſians for having attacked and ſeized the town of Balta in Little Tartary, where ſome Poliſh Confederates had taken refuge; ſo that if the Court of Ruſſia refuſe not ſatisfaction on this account, all further troubles will be prevented.

According to letters from Leghorn, the loſs of the French in Corſica, up to the 20th of Auguſt laſt, is computed at 1300 men, and that of the brave Iſlanders, who have periſhed in their own defence, at 150.

A letter from Baſtia, dated Auguſt 30, ſays, "The taking of the village of Nonza has determined the entire ſubmiſſion of Cape Corſe, one of the moſt populous and commercial parts of the Iſland. Several Chiefs are come to take the oath of fidelity between the hands of Mr. Chardon, the King's Commiſſary."

A private letter from Paris mentions, that two Corſican Chiefs, Signiors Andrea Paſſadio and Giacomo Petruccio, had juſt arrived from Marſeilles, where they were landed by a French tartan, and met with a very favourable reception by the Miniſtry.

They write from Cadiz, that they had received advice of the iſland Juan Fernandes having been ſo diſfigured by an earthquake, as hardly to be known for the ſame place by the moſt experienced navigators in the South Seas.

SEPTEMBER 29. A gentleman has favoured us with the following intereſting paragraph, which we give in his own words, and hope it will prove true.——We have the pleaſure to acquaint the public, from undoubted authority, that letters were received here on Tueſday laſt by ſeveral eminent merchants, from their correſpondents at Boſton, dated the 28th and 29th of laſt month, giving an account, that every thing there was in a ſtate of the moſt perfect tranquility, and that there was not any reaſon to believe that there will be any future diſturbances. This piece of news being ſo agreeable, we thought it our duty to inſert it in our paper as ſoon as poſſible.

Tueſday morning the two Princes of Saxe-Gotha, and the Venetian Ambaſſador, ſailed from Dover for Calais.

The Polly, Sloper from Briſtol to South-Carolina, ſprung a leak, and is put into Liſbon.

It is ſaid a formal declaration of war will be iſſued by the Court of France againſt the Corſicans, if any European power ſhall think fit to interfere in their deſigns of reducing that iſland to the power of France.

OCTOBER 1. Letters from Paris of Sept. 19th, ſay, "By Advices received from Corſica, dated September 3, we learn, that when the King's Edict and Ordinances, which contain certain Promiſes and Menaces made to the Corſicans, were ſent the 27th of laſt Month to Paoli, he convoked, the next Day at Oletta, an Aſſembly of the Rebels; at which the above Edicts and the Paris Gazette of Auguſt 13, were torn and trampled under Feet, by all the Chiefs, and at the breaking up of the Council they cried out, with all their Might, to the People, War! War!"

A few Days ago died at Scarborough, Major-General Burton.

OCTOBER 5. Yeſterday his Excellency Count Widderen had a long conference with his Majeſty's Secretaries of State, in conſequence of ſome diſpatches received from his Court.

We are credibly informed, that one of his Majeſty's yachts, is ordered to ſail round to Harwich, to take his Daniſh Majeſty and retinue on board, in order to return home by way of Holland.

Monday ſome diſpatches of importance were received at the Secretary of State's Office from his Excellency Francis Bernard, Eſq; Governor of New-England.

It is reported, an order has been ſent to Dublin to poſtpone the embarkation of the remainder of the Iriſh regiments for North-America, till further notice.

By ſome advices lately received from Boſton we are informed, that the inhabitants of that place will not permit any Navy Officer to come on ſhore, either with his ſword or cockade on.

It is affirmed, that an American Governor will be continued in his poſt, notwithſtanding the loud complaints of a provincial party to have him ſuperſeded.

Yeſterday morning divers Agents for the American Colonies attended the Board of Trade and Plantations, on the buſineſs of their Conſtituents.

It is ſaid the difference which has, for ſome time paſt, ſubſiſted between a certain Miniſter and a great General, is at length amicably adjuſted.

They write from Legborn, that General Paoli had a very narrow eſcape from falling into an ambuſh of the French in the neighbourhood of Centuri, having his horſe ſhot under him, but was timely reſcued by a party of the Corſicans.

EDINBURGH, September 13. Yeſterday the following gentlemen, had the degree of doctor in phyſic conferred upon them by the univerſity of Edinburgh, after having gone through the uſual trials both private and public, viz. Meſſrs. Iſaac Chanler, James Laird, Joſias Niſbet, Alexander Barron, William Moncrieffe, Charles Blagden, Theodore Forbes-Leith, Joſias Dixon.

CHARLES-TOWN, NOVEMBER 29.

SINCE the Diſſolution of the Honourable Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of this Province, the general Toaſt is, the unanimous Twenty-ſix Members, who would not RESCIND from the Maſſachuſetts Circular Letter.

Several Coaſting Schooners from the Southward were blown off by the Squal of Wind which we had here the 19th Inſtant, ſome of whom have ſince arrived in a ſhattered Condition.

The Ship York, John Randall, Maſter, from Jamaica for London, ſprang a Leak on her Paſſage, which obliged the Captain to endeavour to make this Port, and on the 19th Inſtant arrived off the Bar, but was unfortunately blown off by the above Squal, and the Leak increaſing very much, it was with great Difficulty he kept her above Water until the Monday Morning following, when, in order to ſave his own and People's Lives, he ran her aſhore at Spencer's Inlet, where ſhe is loſt, but Part of her Cargo of Rum will be ſaved.

AT CHARLES-TOWN, SOUTH-CAROLINA.
By JOSIAH SMITH, V. D. M.

REVELATIONS, III. 15, 16, VERSES.
I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: So then, becauſe thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot: I will ſpew thee out of my mouth.

RUN-AWAY from the ſubſcriber, on the 1ſt of November, inſtant, a negro fellow,

named HERCULES,

this country born, about five feet eight inches high, very black, and is well kown in this province: He had on when he went away, two jackets, one a light blue.——This is to forewarn all perſons, (white or black) from harbouring the ſaid fellow, as they may depend on being proſecuted with the utmoſt rigour of the law.—And a reward of TEN POUNDS currency, will be paid to whoever apprehends the ſaid run-away negro, upon his being delivered to me, or to Mr. John Bulline, on Aſhley-river.

JOSEPH GREENLAND.

RUN-AWAY from the ſubſcriber's plantation on Charles-Town neck, four negro men, named ABRAHAM, ROBBIN, JACK, and PETER.——ABRAHAM is a young, ſhort, and black fellow, remarkably ſtrong made; ROBBIN is a ſhort fellow, who with Abraham keep together; JACK is a ſhort fellow, and is a little knock kneed: PETER is a ſtout fellow, has a large belly, and rather old; and as there is great reaſon to think they are harboured in or near Charles-Town, FIFTY POUNDS reward is offered, on conviction of any white perſon ſo offending contrary to law, or TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS if harboured by a negro.

THOMAS GADSDEN.

Who is in want of a ſober, induſtrious man, that underſtands gardening, for a plantation within a mile of Charles-Town, and will attend the market on ſhares.
